AOM - Mazzaresse, Chelsea

“Alumni of the Month”

Chelsea (Levergood) Mazzaresse is the wife of Andrew Mazzaresse from Jerome, PA. Chelsea is a 2008 graduate of Conemaugh Township and a 2012 graduate of Slippery Rock University. Chelsea married her life-long friend, Andrew, in 2018 and is now the proud momma to their three boys: Enzo (4), Leo (2), and Milo (4 months).

Chelsea spent countless hours on the sidelines as a former CT cheerleader. Her experiences and passion for cheerleading led her to roles as a competitive cheer coach for Turner Gymnastics and Westmont School District. Chelsea is a certified teacher in Pennsylvania holding dual majors in Early Childhood Education (Kindergarten-6th) and Elementary Education (Kindergarten-6th). More recently, she has earned a Master of Education in Early Childhood Curriculum and Instruction. Upon completion of her undergraduate coursework, Chelsea accepted a teaching position with Windber Area School District in 2013, where she taught for over nine years as both a pre-K and a second-grade level teacher and was lead teacher.

Chelsea accepted a position as an elementary teacher at Conemaugh Township in August of 2022, fulfilling her childhood dream of teaching at her alma mater, Conemaugh Township.

She hopes to instill the very best in what this district has to offer students and to inspire them to dream big as she did long ago. Chelsea and Andrew currently reside in the district, where they will continue to pass down their CT traditions.
