Alumni of the Month

Heather (Cigich) Hudy, is a Conemaugh Township graduate of the class of 2001. She was a student- athlete and lettered in all four years in both basketball and soccer. She was also a two year letterman in softball. After graduating high school, she attended Clarion to get her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. There she played basketball, while scoring 1,832 points and being ranked third in total points, and second in rebounds with 1,121. She was also named Clarion's Athlete of the Year," in 2004. Heather was inducted into the Clarion Hall of Fame. After graduating from Clarion, she attended Edinboro to get her master's degree in special education. She coached the Greater Johnstown Girls Basketball Team, and now teaches special education at Greater Johnstown High School. Heather resides in Davisville, Pennsylvania. Asia, 17, Xander, 17, Maryn, 8, and Adler 7.

Although Heather enjoyed basketball in college, she has an unforgettable memory of playing in high school. "I scored 1,886 points and broke the all-time girls basketball score in Conemaugh Township history." In which this record, still holds place. Another fond memory Heather has in high school, was class with Mr. Foster. He taught biology along with different sciences. Mr. Foster was her favorite teacher because, "He cared about his students not only in school, but generally, and athletically as well."
