

Scott Cable graduated from Conemaugh Township in 1968. After graduating from high school, he went on to West Liberty University in West Virginia. In 1972 he graduated with a double major in Elementary Education and Comprehensive Social Studies. He went on to teach 5th grade social studies, science, and health at Central elementary for eleven years. He then moved to Conemaugh Township, where he taught World Cultures for twenty five years. Mr. Cable was the girls' varsity basketball coach for nine years and the boy's junior high basketball coach for twelve years. In 2008, Mr. Cable retired from education, but continued coaching the golf team until 2016. Scott has been married to his wife, Lori, for the past 13 years. They have a son, Scott Jr. who lives in Phoenix AZ. (where he travels often) and a daughter Jessica, who lives in Melbourne, Australia. He has 3 grandchildren: Cameron, Max, and Avery Paulson.

Mr. Cable is currently living in Davidsville, PA. His favorite teacher when he was in high school was Mr. Lowell Shaffer and his High School principal, Mr. Shaffer. Mr. Shaffer treated him with respect and gave him the value of taking responsibility for his actions.

His favorite memories of Conemaugh Township were the faculty and students bleeding "Red and Black" with Pride!
