

Sheri (Horner) Zambanini graduated in 1990 from Conemaugh Township Area Middle School/High School. After graduating, she furthered her education with a CADD associate's degree from Triangle Tech, bachelor's degree from the University of Pitt at Johnstown in Secondary Mathematics Education, and master's degree in Education from Indiana at Wesleyan. She is now an algebra teacher at Ligonier Valley Middle School; sharing her knowledge to upcoming generations.

While attending Conemaugh Township, Sheri participated in the musicals by working "behind the scenes" with the makeup crew. She also helped Marya Pepoy on the sidelines of the football games as a student trainer.

Mrs. Zambanini said, "The atmosphere at Conemaugh Township was very much the same as it is today, with respect to the small school environment where everybody knows most, if not all, students, teachers, and administrators."

Sheri's favorite subject in high school was math. This is why she is an algebra teacher. Her favorite teacher was Mr. Kendig.

In regards to her high school memories, Sheri stated, "School spirit was very strong."

Mrs. Zambanini currently lives in Jerome, PA, with her family.. She added that "The atmosphere of a small school, strong school spirit, and community connections is what helped Tony and I decide that this was the educational experience that we would choose for our children. In fact, we moved a few months before our oldest child Ali started kindergarten to ensure this was the case." All of her children, Ali, Kyle, Daniel, and Maggie, have since graduated from Conemaugh Township Area High School.
