

Nicole Dull

Nicole Dull, formerly known as Nicole Samone, graduated from Conemaugh Township Area High School in 1991. During her high school career, she participated in the musical and was the drum major for the school's marching band. "I can remember going to band competitions, meeting students from other schools, and staying overnight in hotels when we competed in ACC's or went to Bush Gardens and New York City," stated Nicole. Her favorite teachers were Mrs. Gardenhour, Mr. Andolina, and Miss Pepoy. All three of them encouraged her to refine her leadership skills and treated her, and all students, with a high degree of respect.

After graduation, Nicole obtained an associate's degree in Early Childhood Education from Mount Aloysius College, followed by a Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown in 1995. After working as a substitute teacher for a year and a half, she enrolled in Gannon University to secure a master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction, as well as her certification in administration. In 2007, Mrs. Dull transitioned to an administrative role in our District and became the Elementary Principal. She returned to Gannon University in 2019 to start coursework for her Superintendent Letter of Eligibility, which she finished in 2020. In January of 2022, upon Mr. Kakabar's retirement, Nicole will transition into the role of the District Superintendent.

Nicole resides in Hollsopple and is married to Eric Dull. They have three children: Zachary, 25; Adelyn, 17 a junior at CT; Ellyana, 10 who is in 4th grade . When Nicole is not working she enjoys antiquing, traveling to Walt Disney World, and biking with her family.
