Her time at Conemaugh Township was very enjoyable. She said one thing she cherishes most are all of her memories of playing sports with her sister, Stacia.

Stephanie stated, "There were so many great teachers at CT when I was there, it is hard to pick just one." A few of her favorites were Mr. Horne, Ms. Risch, Ms. Pepoy, Mr. Cable, and Mr. DeBiase. She also said, "They all had a profound influence on me, both academically and athletically. They all inspired me to achieve in the classroom as well as in the athletic arena, and I am forever grateful to all of them for their mentoring, encouragement, and guidance throughout my high school years."
